The advantages to be gained upon entering the doors of NAHS are many and are ours if we but seek them.

We have taken part in many activities and have developed many different feelings from the time we entered in the fall of 1954 until we left in the spring of 1955. Our experiences are not likely to be forgotten for they are well embedded in our minds.

NAHS has much to offer each student in his chosen field, be it academic, industrial, commercial or vocational.

Senior Jim Clapp is tending a helping hand to Francis Baird by showing him the way to his next class.

Our classrooms and ballgames, along with our Christmas activities and locker inspections, are just a small part of the many experiences that we have shared together. Dances, plays, concerts, and pep sessions are all crammed into one short school year.

We aren't going to forget the interesting and educational assemblies we have had. They, too, are a part of our school life.

As soon as one phase of activity is ended, there is always another to be enthusiastically anticipated. There is truly never a dull moment at NAHS.

Mary Lou Breen, in the role as Dan Mook's mother in the Senior Class Play, is proving that mother is always right.

"We want the freshmen," is the cry given out by the upperclassmen as the freshmen take the traditional "Freshman Walk."

Marlene Maier and Joanne Magness apply finishing touches to Christmas decorations on the office windows.

Barbara Faith and Evelyn Lang are busy at work in the Bookstore, one of the centers of activity at NAHS.

Larry Faith is collecting money for lunches in the cafeteria line.

Chivalry is still here as Bill Pearl lends a helping hand to ladies in distress.

Although our school year was a busy one, we always found time to meet our friends. At the bookstore, the lunchroom, the water fountain, and probably the most popular of all meeting places, the flagpole, we always found a group of students.

Take it from the alumni when they say—"High school friends are life-long friends."

Harry DeArk and Pat Gregg are enjoying the warm spring sun a few minutes before going to class.

Ruthanne Ehalt, Mary Jane McKiss, Sandi Fultineer, and Nancy Williams seem very interested in the "Blotters" that Bill Schwender is handing out.

These students seem absorbed in the program while watching one of our many assemblies.

Bob Rapp, Jo Ann Dalhauer, and Billy Koch display their artistic talents by painting the King of Hearts for the Valentine Dance decorations.

Miss Murray is supervising locker inspection at the end of the first semester.

"We Sing Anywhere" is the motto of the famous Flatops. Singing in the main hall are Sherrill Colvin, Jim Clayton, Don Adams, and Rodney Peonell.

Mr. Warren Slider congratulates James Henry on being selected outstanding senior boy.

Dan Mook, selected as outstanding senior student in engineering, receives his award from Mr. Ben Pawlik.

Mr. Brown commends Deanna Chase, Ruth Anne Loach, Franklin Jones, Sharon Ott, Alvin Vetter, and Robert Welch for four years of perfect school attendance.

Recognition was achieved by outstanding seniors of our high school for unselfish service, citizenship, and scholarship.

The following awards were given to the graduating class of 1955: Valedictorian, Donna Hardin; Altruss, JoAnn Jolly; Tri Kappa, Pat Solomon; Rotary, James Henry; Kiwanis, Donna Hardin, James Clapp, Dan Mook, Larry Faith; DAR award, Carol Jones; Bonnie Sloan Unit of American Legion Auxiliary, Sue Lefler and James Clayton; and the Business and Professional Women's Club, Carolyn Bir.

Dr. A. N. Robertson award, James Henry; Hi Y Achievement award, Richard Roberts; Optimist Club, Robert Maier; Tri Hi Y, Peggy Funk; Indians Society of Professional Engineers, Dan Mook; and Tri Kappa Scholarship Grants, Elizabeth Ann Baylor and Helen Frances Gray.

Also, 40 & 8 of American Legion, Ruth Southard and Doris Mahoney; High School PTA Scholarship, Don Adams; Raney Memorial Award, James Henry; and Psi Iota Psi, Joyce Jefferson.

Students receiving recognition for four years of perfect attendance were Deanna Chase, Franklin Jones, Ruth Anne Losch, Sharon Ott, Alvia Vetter, and Robert Welch.

"At last," sighs Karen Funk as she receives the coveted diploma from Superintendent Barkes.

Standing before the graduating class the NAHS Concert Choir presents selections for the Baccalaureate service.

The seniors are enjoying their party in the high school gym after the Class Day exercises.

Sylvia Reschke, Donna Hardin, Norma Martin, and Janice Harter are conversing while exchanging senior class cards.

Tom Gorris measures LaNelle Brannon for her cap and gown while Audrey Russell watches.

The Reverend Theodore Tiemeyer delivers the Baccalaureate address.

Members of the graduating class of 1955 take their places for the Senior Class Day program.

It looks as though the Freshman-Sophomore Prom was pretty crowded.

Everyone seems to be having a good time at the Freshman-Sophomore Prom.

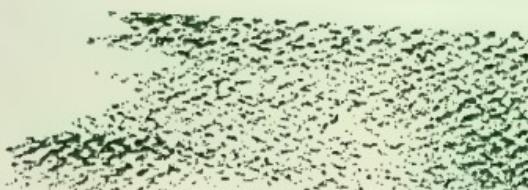

Dancing to the music of Steamie's Orchestra was really great.

"I crown thee Queen," says President of the Senior Class, Jim Henry, as he officially places the floral crown on the 1955 Prom Queen, Sue Lefier.

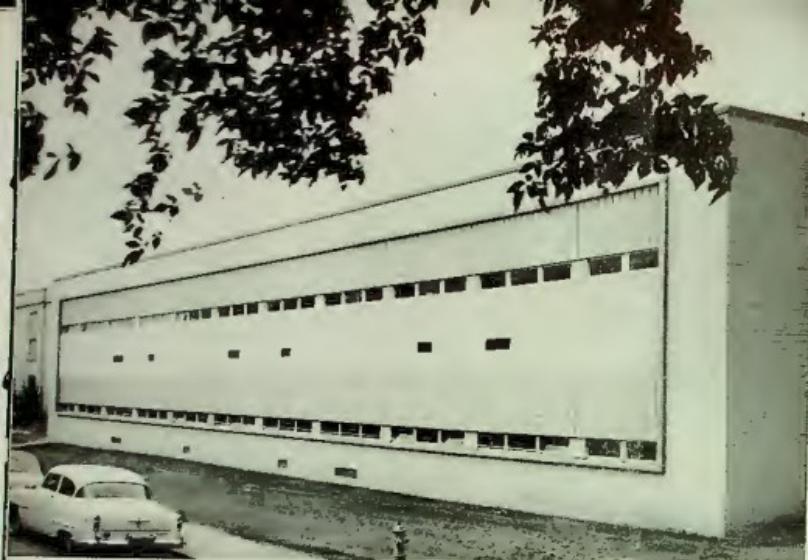

The music sets the mood for these starry eyed dancers.

We're off for an evening of fun as we board the Steamer Avalon.

The new Mechanic Arts Building.

Our vocational department, which produces the tradesmen of tomorrow, is one of which we are certainly proud.

This year this department has expanded greatly as it moved into the new Mechanic Arts Building, which has just been completed. The new shops, outstanding in beauty, equipment, and functional use, are a constant hum of activity as well as machines.

The boys in these shops not only learn to put their knowledge to work but also contribute greatly to the school by the helpful services they often perform.

Fred Rigsby is making a final cut on a lathe, while Mike Hess waits to check his accuracy with a micrometer.

Putting into practical application what they have learned in Vocational Agriculture are Abell and George Hays.

Eddie Owens is rough-cutting on a rip-saw while John Peay is doing some curved work on a band-saw.

Jerry Keller is operating the linotype for an issue of the Blotter, just one of his many jobs.

Mrs. Lopp instructs a student as the girls demonstrate their skill in making their own clothes in a sewing class.

Mr. Summers is showing his class an equation to determine wind velocity.

Mr. Hoffman is giving a little assistance to Violet Tobin and David Walker in one of his typing classes.

Studying the globe in Miss Rusk's history class are Nancy Williams, Donna McBride, and Jerry McLean.

Our classrooms are where we really shine. We have so many different subjects to offer—everything from shop to Latin.

We believe our work is never finished, and we just know we will never get our English theme done in time; but we do, and then we are proud of a job well done.

Although assignments seem difficult at the time, we find all the information from the never ending source of material supplied by our school library.

My goodness, aren't we studious?

Activities . . .

Student Council officers, all smiles as they prepare to preside over a weekly meeting, are Jim Henry, treasurer; Jim Clayton, president; Carol Jones, secretary; and Sherrill Colvin, vice president.

Taking advantage of the new recreation center and trying their hand at shuffle-board are Donna Burd, Mary Lieher, Dolores Dorsey, Linda Roberson, and Carol Stepproe.

Teenage Governors

The Student Council was organized in 1945 to develop student responsibility, initiative, leadership, and school pride; to develop in the student a growing appreciation of membership in a democracy; and to promote desirable student-faculty relationships.

The officers are elected in May of each year by the entire student body and take office the following September. Each room elects a representative as soon as home rooms are organized. This representative serves the full year providing he maintains a "C" average.

The Student Council participated in the Veterans Day parade and won acclaim for its float depicting the flag-raising on Iwo Jima.

Members of this organization have continued previous plans for a Teen Center. They visited the recreation center and are encouraging students to take advantage of the improved facilities.

They discussed arrangements for a fruit vending machine to be placed in the cafeteria. Another project was that of covering some of the stairs with rubber mats.

The Student Council is sponsored by Miss Lucile Paris and Mr. Max Wiesman.

Scholarly Sues and Sams

To attain the honor of receiving the Scholarship "N" a student must achieve a scholastic average of straight "A's" in four subjects and a grade no lower than a "B" if the student is carrying a fifth subject. The "A's" must all be in solid subjects.

Each student who maintained this average for a semester received the honored reward at a special awards assembly in the spring, held in the high school auditorium.

The awards are presented during separate assemblies. The junior and senior classes receive their "N's" in one assembly, the freshman and sophomore classes in another. At both of these assemblies, Mr. Delbert Brown, principal of New Albany High School, made these presentations to the students.

The students who strive for this award encourage high scholastic goals. They do their part in helping to promote and maintain a high scholastic rating at New Albany High School.

The Scholarship "N" is a prized possession to all who receive it. It is earned by student initiative, eagerness, determination, and willingness to study.

From year to year the number of high school students receiving this cherished award reaches a still higher number than the year before.

It is not a club, but a group of students who receive this award. They are proud to wear it, and they are recognized as top NAHS students.

Our high school is rated as one of the top schools in the state of Indiana. These students who have received this award are helping to keep it that way.

Presenting the Scholarship "N" to outstanding students began in 1930 under the direction of a former principal of New Albany High School, Mr. C. C. Katterjohn.

We Doff Our Hats

To the members of the National Honor Society, we doff our hats.

Our local chapter, started in 1954, is proud to be an established member of a national organization, an organization which stands for honesty, dependability, integrity, cooperation, reliability, and fairness in dealing with others.

The purposes of the club are to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of our high school.

The qualifications for membership require that one excel in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The teachers select names from the upper one-fourth of the junior and senior classes. This year there were ten per cent of the senior class and five per cent of the junior class chosen for membership.

The officers elected for this year were Dan Mook, chairman and Kay Duer, secretary.

The annual initiation, held in March in the high school auditorium, was performed by the members from last year. Pins and membership cards were distributed to the new members.

The club is under the sponsorship of Miss Katherine Ellis, Mr. Marvin Oakes, Mr. Ed Summers, Mr. Maurice Miltenberger, and Mr. Delbert Brown, principal.

Larry Knozer is receiving his National Honor Society pin from Kay Duer, secretary.

Men of the World

Since Mr. C. B. McLinn, former superintendent of schools, founded the Wranglers Club, it has taken great pride in being the oldest club in the school. It has developed into one of the most worthwhile organizations for sophomore, junior, and senior boys.

The club has grown since 1910, when it began, by being recognized throughout the entire community with its various activities.

Its main purpose, all these years, has been to promote public speaking, debating, and discussions among high school students.

It is quite an honor to be a member of this club. The boys must have an average of "A" or "B" in English and in social science. They are then asked to try out for the club. The big test comes when they must make a five to ten minute speech on some form of social science. The club is limited to twenty-five male students.

If you happened to be down town on one of those cold, wintry days you may have seen the boys as they collected money for the annual March of Dimes drive in January. Their willingness in giving their time was a fine example of their community work.

A good time was had by all when the Wranglers joined with the Speakers Club, February 16, and sponsored a banquet, held at the Colonial Manor. The Wranglers were in charge of the program. Mr. Homer Peters, of the New Albany Toastmasters Club, was their guest speaker. He gave the speech that won him the annual award of the Toastmasters.

The Toastmasters Club invited the boys to attend one of its meetings in February. Two of the boys were asked to give impromptu talks before the group. In addition to having fun, they had experience in the art of giving speeches.

To support the basketball team and also to build up their own treasury the club sold team tags to the students. Each spring the club holds its annual Wrangler Cup Contest. This is an oratorical contest which is open to any boy or girl at NAHS.

On February 18, the club gave a pep session for the enjoyment of the students, with the purpose of congratulating our SIAC championship team and wishing them luck in our sectional. The boys were dressed in formals, wigs, and clumsy boos. Representing the different schools in the sectional, they held a beauty contest, with Miss New Albany winning by a unanimous decision.

The club is proud to have a new sponsor this year. He is Mr. Robert Willman.

Larry Evans, John Sandlewick, Dan Mook, Jim Henry, Bob Hillesry, and Gerry Lewis compose the Wrangler basketball team.

Officers for the first semester are Dick Roberts, Lee Buchanan, Jim Henry, Dan Mook, and Bill Swift.

Second semester Wrangler officers are Lee Buchanan, John Sandlewick, Jim Clayton, and Jim Henry.

Speaking of---

The officers for this year are Deanna Chase, treasurer; Carol Jones, president; Virginia Schroeder, secretary; Sharon Murphy, student critic; and Peggy Funk, vice president.

To promote public speaking, charitable work, and social life among high school girls is the purpose of the Speakers.

In order to be a member, one must attain an "A" or "B" average in English and have acceptable grades in other subjects. A girl is then asked to try out for membership by giving a five to ten minute speech on any subject of interest to her.

The initiation is held at the beginning of the year, and refreshments are enjoyed at the end of the meeting.

Our students all remember the outstanding Speakers' Christmas program, "The Littlest Angel." Sharon Murphy portrayed the mischievous Littlest Angel; Emelyne Hines, the Gate Keeper; Ardis Patterson, the Understanding Angel; and Dan Mook, the Voice of God. The narrators, Carol Jones, Donna Hardin, and Kay Duer, also gave the play for a church organization. The other angels were played by the remaining Speakers. After the play, Santa Claus made his annual trip from the North Pole to see us and distributed his humorous gifts to the students.

Also, during the Christmas season, the club distributed baskets of food and toys to needy people in the community. It was a worthwhile project with which all of the members helped.

On their long list of projects this year were their Speakers' hats, given out in December. They were green with a white "S" on the front of them. Each girl was fined twenty-five cents if found not wearing her hat on Thursday.

The Speaker-Wrangler banquet, held February 16 at the Colonial Manor, was, indeed, a dinner for all present to remember. The Speakers were in charge of the table decorations and enjoyed the program given by the Wranglers.

The big event of the year was the Biennial Tea, held at the school. All of the past members were invited to take part in this reunion. The alumnae were entertained with a program given by the present members, after which refreshments were served.

Being organized in 1921, Speakers has long been known as one of the outstanding clubs for high school girls. It is under the sponsorship of Miss Oleta Tyler.

Top Feuders

Negative members David George and Tom Wohlfeld and affirmative Ronald Graver and Larry Faith get together with the chairwoman of the debate, Phyllis Bocard.

The purposes of the Debate Club are to preserve the art of argument and to further interest in public speaking, debate, civic affairs, and parliamentary procedures.

The Debate Club meets every Thursday. During the meetings members either hold a debate or discuss debating techniques and procedures.

One of the topics discussed at the weekly meetings was the national debate subject concerning trade restrictions between the United States and friendly nations and problems arising therefrom. Also, the various problems of teenagers are debated upon.

Membership is opened to all students of any class interested in debate.

Officers of the club are Larry Faith, president; Mary Lou Freeman, vice president; Mary Jane McKim, secretary; and Bill Schuppert, treasurer.

The club was organized in October 1952, by Mr. Calvin Knobeloch. Mr. Edmond Hennon is the present sponsor.

And What's Your Opinion?

Junior and senior students with at least a minor in social studies are eligible to become members of Teen Age Forum. A real interest in our government and world affairs is an important qualification.

This club was organized in October of 1955 and has become one of the best known clubs in New Albany High School.

The purpose of Teen Age Forum is to promote a student interest in current world affairs. This club is strictly a discussion group. On December 7, members recorded a panel discussion concerning the "Importance of a College Education to Boys and Girls."

The members of the club were pleased and honored to have Mr. Sachio Shimanagata, a Japanese instructor, speak to them.

The officers this school year were Shirley Albertson, president; Donna Vest, vice president; Dave Striegel, secretary; and Phyllis Bacon, treasurer.

Mr. Bradley Lorton is the sponsor.

Eyes and Ears of the World

The purposes of the Electronics Club are to show educational films to classes and to handle the public address equipment at assemblies and outside programs. This club also trains juniors in radio engineering.

The Electronics Club was organized in September of 1949 by Mr. Vernon McKown and is the only club of its kind in the Falls Cities that assists with educational films.

A sophomore who is a visual aids or radio operator is eligible to become an active member of the Electronics Club.

The duties of the sophomore include the operation of sixteen millimeter slide and strip projectors and the showing of films to classes.

The junior members of the club operate any of the school equipment including the public address system, tape and disc recorders, and the inter-communications equipment.

If the senior members obtain a third class Federal Communications Commission license, they are allowed to engineer in the radio station.

Mr. Robert Willman and Mr. Vernon McKown are the sponsors of this worthwhile and outstanding organization.

The officers this year are Larry McKown, president; John Adams, vice president; and Lacy Kinzer, who acts as both secretary and treasurer.

Carl Smith and Paul Smith show a heavy look of approval as Larry McKown chooses just the right film from the rack.

"Are you ready?" says John Hoffman as he prepares to turn the switch so that Terry Phillips can make an announcement over the inter-com system.

John Scofel, Jerry Plummer, Dale Farosley, Charles Krininger, and Bill Tischendorf prepare the sound projector for the showing of an educational film to a class.

Checking the amplifying equipment is one of the many jobs undertaken by these four members—Bill Call, Larry Kinzer, Larry McCullough, and Jack Kessler.

Silence Please---

WNAS, the "Radio Voice of Education" in the New Albany City Schools, is a member of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters.

It is operated entirely by twenty-five senior students, functioning under the department of audio-visual instruction.

This year, the radio workshop made an hour long tape recording which told the story of WNAS. This tape was sent to universities, colleges, and other high schools that wished to know about New Albany's station or wanted to start their own radio station.

The station broadcast all of the basketball games, including the sectional games which were broadcast by the junior broadcasters.

On Monday nights, the workshop rebroadcasts all of the live student produced programs of the week. WNAS also used spot announcements during the daily, special, and athletic broadcasts.

The purposes of WNAS are improvement of speech, improvement of instruction, and promotion of public relations.

WNAS was the first low power student operated FM station in public schools in the United States. Last year the station increased to one thousand watts.

Under the supervision of Mr. Vernon McKown and Mr. Robert Willman, the boys and girls of New Albany own and operate the station.

WNAS-FM can be heard from 12:15 p.m. until 3:00 p.m. during the week.

Thespians officers. Bill Braden, president; Bob Armstrong, vice president; Betty Gilland, secretary; and Mary Staser, treasurer, take time out from play rehearsal for a chat.

The motto of the Thespians Club is, "Act well your part; there all honors lie."

The original purpose of the club was to advance the standards of the dramatic arts at the secondary school level. A more specific purpose is to provide experience and entertainment in the field of dramatics for the members and student body.

The Theropian Club encourages students to attain a better mastery of language, to develop poise and self control, and to appreciate dramatics and literature.

The talented Thespians displayed their dramatic abilities in their eight performance of "Under the Gaslight." This play required a lot of time and patieoce; however, the Thespians were rewarded by the response that they received. "Under the Gaslight," an old-fashioned melodrama, is a very novel production and was enjoyed by everyone.

Among the many activities in which the Thespians participate are panel discussions concerning dramatics.

The very interested on-lookers during rehearsal are Bill Braden, Janet Terry, Brenda Breece, Bob Armstrong, Nancy Rodgers, Susie Walker, Phyllis Becht, and Sherrill Colvin.

The club had a banquet April 20, at which time awards were given for outstanding acting ability and behind-the-scene work. Also, the outstanding Thespian of the year was chosen.

In January of 1945, the club was granted a charter to Troop No. 624 of the National Thespian Society. At that time, the club was composed of thirteen members under the direction of Miss Lenore M. Cupp. Today the club is an energetic group of 25 under the guidance of Mr. Tom Weatherston. This year is Mr. Weatherston's first year as sponsor.

A try out is held in the fall of each year in order to choose junior and senior students who qualify for Thespians. Each student is given careful consideration. One must have ten Thespian points in order to become a member. These may be acquired by participating in shows and plays, by selling a certain number of tickets to a production, or by seeing a major production.

The officers for Thespians this year were Bill Braden, president; Bob Armstrong, vice president; Betty Gilland, secretary; and Mary Seuser, treasurer.

It's a heart-stopping moment as Sharon Box tries to save Sherrill Colvin from the on-coming train in a scene from the Thespian play, "Under The Gaslight."

The villain, Bill Braden, frightens Sharon Box, the heroine, and Sue Shivel, her sister, in a scene from "Under The Gaslight."

The Stage----Their Home

The Junior Actors Club is an organization composed of sophomore boys and girls who are interested in the theater and the dramatic activities at NAHS.

It is also a goal of most members of the club to earn enough points to become a member of the Thespian Club. They may do this by working in any high school play or local play production.

One of the first activities in which Junior Actors took part was the homecoming parade in the fall. They joined with the other dramatic clubs in making a float. Two masques, one portraying comedy and the other sorrow, comprised the decorations for this float.

Another of the activities of this club was the production of the comedy entitled, "Itchin' to Get Hitched." This play was enjoyed by members of the freshman and sophomore classes.

In the spring the Junior Actors Club held a party at which time it presented awards to deserving members of the club. Awards were given for the best actor, the best actress, and the most efficient boy and girl working backstage. Persons winning these awards were nominated and selected by members of the organization.

The club is sponsored by Mr. Tom Weatherston.

Prelude to Stardom

Any freshman boy or girl who has an interest in acting or reading plays and a desire to learn how to produce them is qualified for membership in the Freshman Dramatics Club. Since this club was organized in 1948 members have been working to reach their goals, which are to develop cooperation and to offer to all members opportunities for self-expression. It is also a goal of some of the members to earn points which will help toward the requirements for membership in Thespians.

This organization produced two plays during the past year. A one act comedy entitled "The Bride Wore Red Pajamas" was presented two times for combined English classes. All members of the club helped in some way to produce this play.

Also sponsored by the Freshman Dramatics Club were two successful candy sales which helped to finance some of the club's activities.

Mrs. Betty Lee Marquis is the sponsor of this club.

Freshman Dramatics members practice for their play which they gave for the freshmen and sophomores.

Bookies

The Vista is our annual record written by and for the students of New Albany High School.

The sixth period journalism staff, under the direction and supervision of their sponsor, Mr. Edmond Hennon, make "The Vista" their project for the year.

In July of 1954 Barbara Embrey and Don Scott, represented New Albany's journalism department at the annual Indiana Journalism Institute. This affair is held on the Indians University Campus, in Bloomington. The purpose of this two-week conference is to gain information on yearbook planning. Don won first place in amateur photography.

In October Barbara Embrey, editor, and Peggy Dunn, assistant editor, went to Franklin College to attend the Indiana High School Press Association Conference.

All write-ups, the mounting of pictures, organization, and soliciting of advertising are done by the students.

In order to get all the high school activities of the year in the book it was distributed in the mid-summer.

Checking the lay-out for the 1955 Vista are Editor Barbara Embrey and Assistant Editor Peggy Dunn.

Writing headlines for the activities section are Colleen Oakes, Kay Duer, Janice Owen, LaNelle Brannon, Evelyn Whittinghill, and Mary Lieber.

Looking over records from the Vista advertising campaign are Mary Lou Voss, assistant business manager, and Ronald Craig, business manager.

Gladys Payne, Sandra Sue Smith, Deanna Chase, Carolyn Fleischer, and Karen Funk make certain you seniors are in the correct order.

The sports staff, consisting of Phil Cato, Louie Stein, Larry Dougherty, Dick Roberts, Lance Embrey, and Joe Baxter, are preparing last minute copy.

The Blotter, the NAHS newspaper, is published by junior and senior fourth period journalism students. The paper, which is put out bi-weekly, consists of sports, features, and the latest happenings around NAHS.

The paper is printed by the high school's own print shop. It is then sent to the journalism students to be proofread. The finished product is one of the finest school newspapers in this part of the state.

A variety show was enjoyed by the students who purchased the Blotter for the first semester. Held in October during the home room period, the show featured NAHS students in various acts. Those purchasing the Blotter for the second ~~semester~~ were entitled to attend a girls' basketball game held in the boys' gym, also during the home room period in January. This game was played by the members of the Girls Athletic Association.

The journalism classes sponsored the sale of basketball and football programs at all the home games. These programs contained pictures of the team and the names and numbers of both of the competing teams. This year, as in past years, the Blotter staff sold basketball booklets containing information and pictures of the team.

To learn more about editing the school paper and to view what other schools were doing, four members of the Blotter staff journeyed to Franklin College to attend the annual meeting of the Indiana High School Press Association. The four students who made the trip were Sunnay Adams, Catherine Jo Ellis, Mary Ashberry, assistant editor; and Pat Solomon, editor.

--And the Band Played On

Basketball fans thrilled to the special musical arrangements the New Albany Band played during the season. The band, consisting of 10½ members, is under the direction of A. Fielder Myers and Ovid Chambers.

The activities of this year's band have been many and varied. The members attended Band Day at Indiana University and the Band Festival at Mitchell. They also participated in the State District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Hanover College and attended the All State Contest at Indianapolis. The band appeared at all local athletic events.

In May the band presented its annual Spring Concert. The concert was dedicated in appreciation of the new bandroom in the Mechanic Arts Building. For this occasion the band presented the premiere performance of the first movement of a symphony which was composed especially for the New Albany High School Band. The symphony is called "Desert Discovery."

During the football season, the New Albany Marching Band presented entertaining programs. It specialized in intricate marching routines and dance steps. The Marching Band attended Indiana Day at the Kentucky State Fair.

A new drum major, Ben Ewton, was chosen for this year. There are 86 members in the Marching Band.

The following band members were elected as officers for the school year: Jim Sinkhorn, president; Roger Ehalt, vice president; Joyce Jefferson, secretary; Connie Fendall, treasurer; and Betty Hutchinson, librarian.

This "N" is one of the many formations performed by the members of the band.

Let There Be Music!

The Music Hour Club was established in order that the students could listen to serious music and learn to enjoy it.

This club was organized in 1950 and is now under the leadership of Mr. Harry Stout.

Officers for the first semester of the year were Chuck Gall, president; Lloyd Koehler, vice president; Mary Ann Branham, secretary; Teddy Breeding, treasurer; and David Klassen, sergeant-at-arms.

The second semester officers were Ronald Foster, president; Lloyd Koehler, vice president; Beth Silliman, secretary; David Klassen, treasurer; and David Streckfus, sergeant-at-arms.

Among the classical works the Music Hour Club has studied are Beethoven's Fifth and Sixth Symphonies; "March Slave," by Tscbjakovsky; Brahms' Hungarian Dances; and "Overture to Tannhauser," by Wagner.

Students must have a genuine interest in good music and must also be willing to learn more about it in order to qualify for membership in this club.

The officers of the Music Hour, gathering to further their plans for club activities, are Chuck Gall, president; David Klassen, sergeant-at-arms; Lloyd Koehler, vice president; Mary Ann Branham, secretary; and Teddy Breeding, treasurer.

Matchless Melodies

The New Albany Concert Choir is an excellent example of an actual class of both enjoyment and learning. The choir is composed of 82 sophomore, junior, and senior boys and girls. Members are selected according to previous musical experience and tryouts.

Members of the choir are given opportunities to reach high performance standards and become acquainted with good music by many different composers. To develop poise and confidence in presenting good concert programs is also a very high goal of the choir members.

At the first of the school year, officers were chosen to preside at the choir rehearsals and programs. These officers were Don Adams, president; Sylvia Reschke, secretary; Rodney Pennell, treasurer; and Sandra Utrecht, Marcia Wrege, Jim Clayton, and Terry Turbeville, sergeants-at-arms of the soprano, alto, tenor, and bass sections, respectively.

As well as having fun, the members also present to the public many entertaining and inspirational programs. During the Thanksgiving holidays, the choir presented a very enlightening assembly for the students. "Thanksgiving Proclamation" began the program, and such songs as "Harvest Hymn," and "Grandma's Thanksgiving," accented an impressive service.

On December 16, the choir presented its annual Christmas program with a variety of gay Christmas songs for both young and old. The program was opened by "Overture and Treplek," from the Nutcracker Suite. Specialty numbers included "Winter Wonderland," by the Flattops, and "Santa's on His Way," by the NAHS sextet. There were also several dance specialties.

Following the Christmas program at school the choir also presented a few of its selections over a Louisville radio station.

April 13, the choir presented vocal selections in the high school auditorium for a UN program. The program, open to the public, featured Dr. Harry Howard, a UN specialist on Far Eastern Affairs. Used at this program were the patriotic songs in the choir's large repertoire.

The choir presents its music for various holidays; however, its members also prepare general music to be presented at numerous entertaining assemblies. One of these type programs was presented in the fall at the Jeffersonville High School, and during Christmas the members sang at a double assembly at the Junior High School.

In the latter part of April, the choir members ventured to North Vernon, Indiana, to participate in the Valley Choral Festival. New Albany was one of the seven schools that joined in this song-fest, singing numbers learned by all participating schools.

Obviously, the members of the choir are very talented, and this fact was proved even more when New Albany received great recognition at the music contest this year. Sixty-one vocal participants, representing ensembles and solos, took part in the district contest held at Hanover College, February 5. Those numbers receiving first division ratings then ventured to Butler University, February 19, for the state contest. As usual, New Albany did exceptionally well at both contests.

Lovely Lasses

In 1928, a club was organized at NAMS to give girls interested in singing an opportunity to use their talents in presenting to the public top rate shows. This club was given the name Bel Canto, meaning beautiful singing, which certainly represents the true meaning of this organization. Today, the Bel Canto Club is still known for its beautiful singing and unique show productions.

Membership into this popular club is open to any sophomore, junior, or senior girl who successfully survives the invitational tryouts. Members are judged on their ability to read music, general musicianship, quality of voice, and cooperativeness. Judges are composed of the club's sponsor and its officers. Those passing qualifications for membership are inducted at a very impressive initiation which is held at one of the member's homes. New members then entertain all others with various types of readings, solos, dances or any type of number fitting to this long remembered event. At this time, a turkey dinner is also enjoyed by all.

The Bel Canto Club takes pride in its annual productions. This year the club chose the college theme for its show which was a hit, as usual. "Kampus Kapers," a four-act musical, was in authentic college style with such songs as "Buckle Down Winsocie," "Varsity Drag," "Steam Heat," "Betty Co-ed," "Halls of Ivy," "It's a Big, Wide, Wonderful World," and many others fitting to the theme. Many hours of strenuous practice went into this show's production, but all of the members were rewarded when the curtains opened March 31 and revealed an auditorium with every seat filled. Mary Lou Breen was this year's director and Barbara Brewer served as the assistant director. Practically all of the selections used in this year's show were special arrangements done by some of the members, the director, or their sponsor.

Although the Bel Canto show is this club's main and most widely known activity, the club also has a great amount of activities both inside and outside our school. At the annual Christmas program, the club has established a tradition of caroling from the steps of the auditorium while carrying lighted candles, giving a beautiful effect.

At the Armistice Day Program, the club always ends this very solemn service with traditional taps. To heighten the effect the members are all robed in white and sing from the balcony of the auditorium.

The Bel Canto Club's 45 girls always look forward to their yearly trip to Ft. Knox where they present their annual show to our servicemen. In the afternoon they entertain an appreciative audience at one of the hospitals and then do a repeat performance at a service club that same night. The girls not only sing, but also take along all of their show properties which makes the production practically identical to the original show given here.

Their show is also presented to the men of the Veterans

Hospital in Louisville, Kentucky.

The club's activities are brought to an end by the annual Bel Canto Dance to which everyone looks forward. This formal dance is for all present and former Bel Canto members and their guests. A top named band is always present to furnish the music. The highlight of the dance is the crowning of the queen who is chosen by popular vote from five candidates nominated by the club members. The queen and her escort are then presented with a gift from the club members.

The sponsor of this very popular club is Mr. Robert Carter.

Music On Their Minds

The Music Appreciation Club was organized to help the students learn more about and appreciate better music. The members study the backgrounds of the composers and the stories behind the operas. They also increase the number of records available for school use through the records they get to study.

The club members held a candy sale on November 23 and a white elephant sale on January 14.

The Music Appreciation Club was organized in 1953. The membership, which is limited to 35, is open to only freshmen and sophomores.

Different officers were elected for the two semesters. First semester officers were Diana Schwindt, president; Rita Lee, vice president; Phyllis Kirkpatrick, secretary; and Bob Ivey, treasurer. Officers for the second semester were Rita Lee, president; Herman Bott, vice president; Norma Lee, secretary; and Shirley Hardin, treasurer. Linda Johnson and Joyce Riley were sergeants-at-arms.

Members of this club studied the life of Stephen Collins Foster while listening to many of his works. "America the Beautiful" was one of the many familiar songs studied by members of this very active club. Also, the life of John Phillip Sousa was studied, along with some of the songs he wrote.

The members listened to popular records, folk songs, and classics.

At Christmas time, they studied the "Nutcracker Suite," of which they had a tape recording.

A Step to Etiquette

There is now no reason for high school students not knowing how to dance. In 1950, the Social Dance Club was organized at New Albany High School by Mr. Howard Hundemer. This club gave opportunities for students to increase their dancing ability and also helped them socially by giving them a chance to mix with others. This club, now under the sponsorship of Miss Jesse Ruth Bobb, has continued to give any freshman or sophomore boy or girl excellent instructions in the fundamentals of dancing.

Maralyn Wolf, Judy Stockdale, John Stumler, and Ronald Peay served as group leaders for the second semester.

In the spring, the members held a dance at which they exhibited the steps they had learned throughout the year.

Swingers in Straw Hats

If you have a desire to have fun and are interested in learning the art of square dancing, the Square Dance Club is for you.

The club was organized in 1950 and now has Mrs. Dorothy Morsinger and Mr. Richard Wardell as its sponsors. The club meets every Tuesday and Thursday, during homeroom period, in the boys' gym.

The Jeans and Janes, the advanced group, meet on Tuesday; the beginners group [redacted] on Thursday. At these meetings, the members learn to improve their square dancing and are taught how to follow the different calls.

All of the members enjoyed the combined picnic, square dance, and swimming party, held at Frog Pond Farm in September.

In November, eight of the club members attended the Chicago International Square Dance Festival.

A treat for all members was the party at which their guest, Sherlock Holmes, called the dances.

Several of the members went to the Kentucky Square Dance Festival at Frankfort in May.

These members of the club attended the JCL State Convention at Bloomington, in April.

The Junior Classical League was organized in 1936 by the American Classical League to encourage an interest in and an appreciation for the ancient Roman and Greek civilizations. It is also the purpose of the club to promote a better understanding of their contributions to government, law, literature, language, and the arts.

The qualification for membership into JCL is to be a student presently taking Latin or to have completed courses in Latin.

Officers for the first semester were Arthur Endres, consul; Gene Middaugh, quæstor; Jo Hannah Hahn, scriba; and Steve VonAllmen, ædile. Those officers presiding during the second semester were Bunky Binford, consul; Bill Ryall, quæstor; Winnie Wolfe, scriba; and Steve VonAllmen, ædile.

The members of this club engaged in many activities during the past year. Fifteen new members were added to JCL at initiations on January 20 and February 17. Other activities enjoyed during the past year were the annual Roman Breakfast and the Roman Holiday, both in the spring, to which all Latin classes were invited.

Paris Personalized

The purposes of the French Club are to promote interest in the customs, language, and culture of France, and to give opportunity for expression of French through plays, folksongs, dances, and by celebrating French holidays.

The French Club presented its annual French Club Show on March 16. The show was called "So This Is Paris." All French students participated in the hit show.

The club's float for the Homecoming Parade, made to resemble the Arch of Triumph, symbolized our triumphant team and won first prize in the contest.

Officers for the year were as follows: Jacinta Clay, president; Terry Turbeville, vice president; Sherrill Colvin, secretary; and Shirley Albergson, treasurer.

Membership for this club is open to the members of the French classes or to anyone who has studied French in the past.

French festivals and holidays are celebrated in the French Club in the same manner that they are in France. A part of the club's activities is to serve refreshments and to dance the proper folk dances of the different national celebrations.

One of the holidays the club celebrated was the Twelfth Night performance, "Feast of the Kings," on January 6.

The club has stated its objectives as follows: "By French folk songs and dances we strive to improve our ability to increase our knowledge of the country of France and its customs."

The French Club was reorganized at the school eleven years ago by its present sponsor, Mrs. Irma Pritz.

Danger--Explosives!

The Science Club is an excellent example of an organization formed to meet and have fun while learning a great deal about a subject.

This club is open to any high school student possessing a sincere interest in science.

The club has no specific officers, but is led at various times by co-chairmen.

As well as meeting and discussing scientific problems on club days, this active club also gains practical experience by traveling to manufacturing plants.

In the spring of last year, members of the Science Club ventured to Charlestown, Indiana, to visit the Indiana Ordnance, a du Pont plant. The club was led on a guided tour through this smokeless powder plant and saw powder being made in its actual process.

The club also toured Appliance Park in Louisville, Kentucky, operated by the General Electric Company. There members spent much time in the research laboratory chatting with the workers.

To highlight this year's list of projects, members of this club made a very educational trip. During the Easter vacation, 22 boys boarded our Bulldog bus and headed for Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Upon their arrival, they were entertained by the students of the Oak Ridge High School in the town's youth center. Some of their tours included a tour of Oak Ridge by bus and a very interesting tour of the American Museum of Atomic Energy. In this museum the boys viewed a model of an atomic pile, a movie on the atom, and a demonstration concerning radio isotopes being used in medicine. The atomic plants at Oak Ridge were another scientific site that these boys viewed.

Although Oak Ridge was the club's destination, its members also visited other places while returning home. One of these places was Norris Dam near Norris, Tennessee. The boys also visited Tennessee University at Knoxville. Before returning home April 9, they made a stop at Fort Harrod, Kentucky, which was the first white settlement west of the Alleghenies.

It can easily be seen that the members of the Science Club are very active and are certainly gaining very worthwhile and actual experiences.

Mr. L. S. Rose, science teacher, sponsors this outstanding club.

Clicking Clan

The Photography Club was originated to aid students in taking better pictures and to provide a means for students to learn photography.

One of the club's main projects this year was selling pictures of the football team.

The only necessary qualifications for membership are an access to a camera and an interest in photography.

During the year the club was host to guests, and qualified members of the organization gave talks on various subjects. Mr. Horace Chase, local photographer, spoke at one of the weekly meetings.

The club sponsored several successful candy sales throughout the school year.

The Photography Club was organized in 1944 and remained active until the end of 1945. Mr. Delbert Brown re-organized the club in 1948.

Officers are Jim Clapp, president; Jerry Meadows, vice president; Raymond Berry, secretary; and Jane Leuthart, treasurer.

The club is sponsored by Mr. Edward Summers.

Slick Lickers

The Stamp Collectors Club was organized in 1951 by Mr. Norman Smith, who is the present sponsor of the organization.

The club was organized to further develop the interests of the students who participate in stamp or coin collecting as an individual hobby. The club attempts to promote and gain the attention of more stamp and coin collectors in order that it might be expanded and that new ideas might be contributed.

Any boy or girl in high school who is interested in stamp or coin collecting as a hobby may become a member of this club.

During the club meetings, this group engages in a variety of activities. Some of these include stamp and coin auctions, trades, quizzes, and grab bags. Also, during two club meetings, the members invited speakers from the Southern Indiana Stamp Club. These visitors talked to the club about various phases of stamp collecting. The Stamp Club also sponsored a candy sale.

Deciding which coin is most valuable is no job for Ralph Gray, Carl Connell, Jack Eichenberger, Wayne Baldwin, Gary Morlen, and David Shallers.

Those who preside over members of the Stamp Club are Robert McSpadden, treasurer; Eddie LaDuke, vice president; Joe Voyles, president; and Sharon Hunt, secretary.

Interior Decorators

The Art Club meets on both Tuesday and Thursday and has separate officers for the two days. The officers for the Tuesday meeting are Charles Akers, president; Helen Wright, vice president; Larry Dalhovet, secretary; and Robert Nolan, treasurer. The officers for the Thursday meeting are Mike Gaddie, president; Carolyn Wood, vice president; Jo Ann Snook, secretary; and Bill Koch, treasurer.

This very active club has engaged in a number of activities during the school year such as the annual Hallowe'en party, the Valentine Dance, and a spring picnic. Also, at Christmastime, the club members added a note of gaiety to the school by their decorations in the halls and in the various administrative offices.

The Art Club was organized in 1945 and is sponsored by Mrs. Virginia Biggersnaff.

The purposes of the Art Club are to serve the school and to give the students an opportunity to meet with others who have similar interests and abilities.

The qualification for membership into this club is that one must have at least one year of art with a "B" average.

The talents of the members of this club are evident in the fact that out of ten Falls Cities Art Scholarships, given by the Art Center of Louisville, Kentucky, three were awarded to NAHS Art Club members.

Country Gentlemen

The Future Farmers of America was organized nationally in 1928; however, the local FFA chapter, which has progressed each year and has become one of the most outstanding clubs in New Albany High School, was not organized until 1949.

During 1954-1955, the local FFA chapter was named the outstanding chapter in the state and one of the top chapters in the country. It also had its first Hoosier Farmer Degree winners. They were Ralph Terrell, Melvin Konkle, and Arthur Karnes.

The members of the club took part in ten radio programs on WGRC this year. They also participated in the national FFA convention in Kansas City and the state convention at Purdue University, where they took part in the state land judging contest.

The Future Farmers' purposes are to develop character, train for useful citizenship, foster patriotism, and create more interest in the intelligent choice of farming occupations.

There are 47 members in our local chapter at New Albany High School.

The officers this year were Melvin Konkle, president; Don Stiller, vice president; John Hinton, secretary; Nevil Cook, treasurer; David Chastain, representative; and Ralph Terrell, sentinel.

Rattle Those Pots and Pans

Future Homemakers, a club for girls studying economics for home welfare, was established to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking and to further an interest in home economics.

Organized in 1945, its qualification for membership is enrollment in home economics or completion of a semester of home economics.

Problems which confront today's homemakers are discussed at the regular meetings.

The club is proud to be a member of a state and national organization.

To begin the activities for the year, the club had a formal initiation November 10.

On October 16, some of the members attended a Southeast District meeting, enjoyed by everyone. At this meeting, which was held at New Albany, Pat Hublar was elected song leader.

In the spring the girls attended another Southeast District meeting held at Greenwood, Indiana.

The FHA State Convention was held on June 10 and 11 and was attended by several club members.

Future Homemakers is sponsored by Miss Martha Ward.

Yearnin' Learners

The Future Teachers Club was organized in 1954 by Mr. Delbert Brown to encourage its members to cultivate in themselves the personality and character needed for a successful teaching career.

The members of this organization are given the opportunity to do a small amount of actual teaching. This year a Future Teachers Day was established in the elementary schools when members were given a chance to assist the teachers. Occasionally, they assist in our own high school in freshman classes.

The only requisite for membership in the Future Teachers Club is to be a senior boy or girl interested in teaching as a future vocation.

This year the club received its national charter which affiliates it with the national FTA organization.

Activities for the year include observation trips to various state colleges on high school day and the annual initiation. Members also helped man the March of Dimes tables during the polio drive.

This active club is sponsored by Mr. Marvin Oakes.

Margaret Ross, vice president; and Peggy Dunn, president; show other officers, Betty Hutchinson, Joyce Jefferson, Judy Riley, Virginia Mueller, Irvin Walker, and Sylvia Reschke, the charter which affiliates this club with the national organization.

They'll Hold Your Hand

The Future Nurses Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Anna Samples, school nurse, was organized in 1951. Membership is open to any junior or senior girl who is interested in a nursing career.

The purposes of this club are to interest high school students in personal and community health, to encourage students to consider the requirements and opportunities offered in a nursing career, and to help students determine which phase of the nursing profession they wish to enter.

During the month of May, members of the Floyd County Medical Society Auxiliary honored the graduate members of the club with a tea.

This active club has toured quite a number of hospitals during the year including Children's Hospital, St. Anthony's Hospital, and Baptist Hospital. They also attended the open house at Norton Infirmary.

The club had its annual Christmas party on December 21. On January 21, it helped man the March of Dimes tables.

Club pins were purchased by some of the members.

Members attempt to bring some cheer into the lives of the children at the Children's Hospital.

D. E. members enjoy their annual Employer-Employee Banquet at the Colonial Manor.

The Distributive Education Club was organized in 1948 and is now under the sponsorship of Mr. M. L. Miltenberger.

This club was established for the purpose of developing progressive, respected, and successful leadership in retailing. The club also encourages the use of high ethical standards in the business world.

The activities for the year included selling at the concession stand at the Polio Benefit, selling pictures of the basketball team, and having a candy sale in January.

Members of the club attended the State Convention of the Distributive Education Club in February and also the National Convention in April.

The club held its annual Employer-Employee Banquet at the Colonial Manor on February 1. The guests of honor were Mr. Bader, Mrs. Willis, and Mr. Stalt. The speakers for the banquet were Ann Miller, Lee Sherrell, and Geraldine Caudill. The Master of Ceremonies was Jim Atkinson.

Work with a Pleasure

The Junior Red Cross, a very active group at NAHS, is open to anyone who has an interest in the National Red Cross and its activities.

One of the club's most appreciated tasks this year was the making of scrapbooks for veterans. The members filled them with cartoons, jokes, and clippings from various newspapers and magazines and sent them to the Red Cross which will distribute them as it sees fit.

During the Christmas season they filled stockings and gave them to the underprivileged children of New Albany. Some of these stockings were sent to the Crippled Children's Hospital in Louisville.

Miss Rice, a representative of the Red Cross, was one of the many interesting speakers during the year. She spoke of the wonderful work the Red Cross is doing and suggested many worthwhile projects the Junior Red Cross could undertake.

Mr. Richard Wardell was the new sponsor for this year.

These scattered articles soon made up beautiful scrapbooks when members of Junior Red Cross began an annual project.

The officers of the Phi Delta, all smiles as they think of future activities, are Carolyn Wright, secretary; Juanita Miller, chaplain; Sue Jerrell, historian; Freda McWilliams, sergeant-at-arms; Joanne Magness, vice president; Janice Harter, treasurer, and Shirley Zurschmiede, president.

Service with a Smile

The purpose of Phi Delta Tri Hi Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character.

This worthwhile club was organized in the fall of 1953.

The activities this year included an initiation service held at the Colonial Manor, January 12, 1955. The club's installation of officers also took place this service.

One of the speakers for Phi Delta Tri Hi Y this year was Miss Paris, Dean of Girls, who was at one time an active member of Tri Hi Y.

The members of Phi Delta Tri Hi Y served on the registration committee for the Tri Hi Y District Meeting which was held at New Albany High School.

To raise the club's funds during the year, they sponsored pastry sales.

Officers of the club this year are Shirley Zurschmiede, president; Joanne Magness, vice president; Carolyn Wright, secretary; Janice Harter, treasurer; Sue Jerrell, historian; Freda McWilliams, sergeant-at-arms; and Juanita Miller, chaplain.

Miss Mary J. Augenstein was sponsor of Phi Delta Tri Hi Y this year.

Actions with Results

The purpose of Alpha Beta Tri Hi Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian living.

Freshman and sophomore girls are qualified to become members of this club.

The Alpha Beta Chapter of Tri Hi Y was organized in 1949, and it has progressed steadily into one of the most active Tri Hi Y groups.

On December 4, the club held a formal initiation in the auditorium at New Albany High School.

Their skating party at Pekin on March 16 was fun for the members and their guests.

The club, which has approximately 45 members, sponsored a salt water taffy sale this year.

One of several speakers for Alpha Beta Tri Hi Y was Reverend Clifford Miller from Centenary Methodist Church in New Albany.

The officers of the club were Barbara Morgan, president; Roberta Roy, vice president; Carolyn Hogue, secretary; Phyllis Thomas, treasurer; Shirley Davis, sergeant-at-arms; Judy Hazelton, historian; Connie Holton, chaplain; and Alice Sloan, publicity.

Mr. G. R. Burchfield was the club sponsor.

Jobs Well Done

Alpha Tri Hi Y officers discussing the spring district meeting are Deanna Chase, Virginia Schroeder, Betty Hutchinson, Jo Ann Jolly, Kay Duer, Jane Gilley, and Peggy Funk.

To build from girls of today, intelligent women of tomorrow, is only one of the many purposes of the Alpha Tri Hi Y.

The club held its initiation at the Centenary Methodist Church on January 20. Preceding the initiation a banquet was held for the members at a local cafeteria.

At Christmas the girls went caroling at the Old Folks Home. With them they took cookies and a Christmas tree to decorate while caroling. Each year the old folks look forward to this event.

One of their most worthwhile projects of the year was the sponsoring of religious services, held in the auditorium, during the weeks preceding Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. Speaking at these services were students from NAHS and guests from the community.

Each year Alpha Tri Hi Y gives a scholarship to the outstanding girl of the club, determined by vote of the members of the group.

The sponsor of the Alpha Tri Hi Y is Mrs. Marsha Scott. Co-sponsors are Miss Ruth Breautigam, Miss Kathryn Murray, and Miss Jesse Ruth Bobb.

Actions Louder Than Words

The Omega chapter of Tri Hi Y has been an active club at NAHS since its organization in 1948. This year was certainly not an exception as all of the members helped to carry out the purposes of the club, which are to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character.

The qualifications for membership in this organization are to be a freshman or sophomore girl with a "C" average and to have a desire to uphold the platform of the club which is pure thoughts, pure words, and pure actions.

The members of Omega Tri Hi Y engaged in many activities during the past year.

Last fall they entered a float in the annual homecoming parade. It was decorated with many various colored napkins placed in chicken wire, so as to form the insignia of the club on one side and a football beside a goal post on the other.

The girls of Omega Tri Hi Y work in the church room during the basketball season. They looked very good at their last meeting at an NAHS boy. Members are Delores Thorsby, Blanche Jones, and Sue Seiler.

Omega Tri Hi Y's float was one of the most outstanding in the Homecoming parade held in October.

Members looking at the presents they received at the club's Christmas party are: (Standing) Phyllis Davis, Ann Howard, Betty Mather, Maralyn Wolf, Peggy Lewis, Delores Dorsey, Carol Hodge, Dorothy Lester, Yvonne Morgan, Barbara Caesar, Shirley Schuppert, Peggy Zeller, and Joanne Hanson. Officers of Omega Tri Hi Y for the school year are Janet Lasley, secretary; Delores Dorsey, vice president; Maralyn Wolf, president; Sue Kepley, sergeant-at-arms; Bonnie Jones, historian; and Peggy Lewis, treasurer.

On December 19, a Christmas Party was enjoyed by the members of Omega Tri Hi Y at the home of Darlene Bennett. Each member brought gifts with which to fill a Christmas basket for the club's needy family.

One of the fund-raising activities in which the club members took part was operating the checkrooms at the basketball games. They donated the proceeds from one night's business to the March of Dimes. They also earned money by selling boxes of various kinds of candy.

The annual Mother and Daughter banquet was held at the Colonial Manor in the spring. The officers who were elected to serve during the ensuing year were installed. The outstanding club member was chosen by Miss Muriel Ryall and Miss Stephenson, who are sponsor and assistant sponsor, respectively, of the club.

Libby Davis, Judy Thomas, Virginia Pry, Sandra Utrecht, and Judy McCaffrey served as the club's officers.

Helping---Their Pleasure

The Zeta Chi chapter of Tri Hi Y was organized in September of 1953, for freshman and sophomore girls. It is a YMCA unit.

This is one of the many Ti Hi Y's affiliated with a nationwide fellowship of high school youth.

It is a service club organized for the purposes of creating, maintaining, and extending, throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character.

In order to be a member of the chapter, the girls who participate in the activities of the club must have a "C" average. The officers must have a "B" average.

Pins were distributed on November 22, at an impressive initiation for new members. It was held in the high school auditorium.

As a part in the annual homecoming parade, members made a large, white football decorated with red and black streamers.

This was placed on a truck with two girls acting as football referees and four others dressed as football players.

For the convenience of people coming to the games, the girls maintained a checkroom during all the home basketball games. From one of these checkrooms they gave the proceeds to the community's annual March of Dimes drive. Aside from this, they gave their time to work downtown at the polio stands on January 21.

To make the Easter holidays happier for the men and women at the Floyd County Infirmary, the members packaged treats for them. Each package was gaily decorated and contained Easter eggs and Easter candy.

So that they could raise money for charity and club projects, the girls had pastry sales downtown and candy sales at the school.

The club enjoyed a guest speaker at one of its meetings in the early spring. The speaker, who was Paul Clausen, assistant pastor at the First Church of God, spoke on "Developing a Dependable Set of Values."

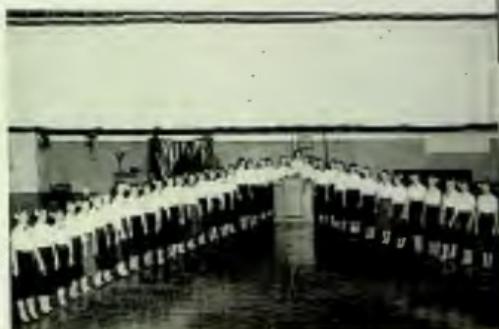

On March 17, the district Hi Y-Tri Hi Y meet was held at our school. Many schools from District 12 attended this meeting. Zeta Chi, along with Alphas, was in charge of the decorations.

This club is sponsored by Mrs. Merle Walker.

"Check your coats" was the cry of Mary Lieber, Judy McCaffrey, Virginia Pry, and JoAnn Jefferson. Evidently Mr. Ralph Davis, student teacher, heeded their cry.

Zeta Chi Tri Hi Y members hold their formal initiation.

President Sandra Utrecht presides over a weekly meeting of the Zeta Chi Tri Hi Y as Virginia Pry proposes a motion.

To Serve Is Their Goal

To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character is the purpose of the Sigma Hi Y.

This active group, composed of junior and senior boys, participated in many activities throughout the school year. The members joined with the Senior Hi Y and held a banquet and formal initiation ceremonies at a local cafeteria. At this time the new members were presented with Hi Y pins.

During the Christmas season they aided the New Albany Lions Club in their charity program by selling Christmas trees and other Christmas decorations.

This lively group of boys played host at the pep session on February 4, before the Evansville Reitz game. They had their own cheerleaders, cheering section, and basketball game.

This Hi Y club is one of the eight boys' clubs of this school that participated in intramural basketball. These games were held weekly in the NAHS gym.

This spring the members collaborated with the other Tri Hi Y and Hi Y clubs of NAHS to hold a district Tri Hi Y and Hi Y meeting here. Representatives from sixty Southern Indiana clubs were invited to attend the meeting.

Mr. Floyd Henry is the club sponsor.

Deeds with Willingness

The members of the Junior Hi Y are composed of freshman and sophomore boys who are interested in leading better lives through Christ.

These boys volunteer their services after school to referee several grade school sports, including football, basketball, and baseball games.

The Junior Hi Y joined with the Sigma and Senior Hi Y's in contributing the large Hi Y sign and roster boards in the gymnasium.

The club also gave its assistance during the March of Dimes Campaign at the beginning of the year by manning the contribution tables in the downtown area.

As a fund raising project the club held several successful candy sales throughout the school year.

This is the first year Mr. Charles Pratt has sponsored the club.

On the way to one of their meetings are presiding officers of Freshman Hi-Y—Gene Middaugh, secretary; Bill Hutchinson, treasurer; Steven Von Allmen, vice president; Gary Austin, sergeant-at-arms; and L. B. Hocker, president.

Bearers of High Standards

The Senior Hi Y Club was established for the purposes of creating, maintaining, and extending throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character.

The club participated in a number of activities during the school year. It sponsored a basketball mixer, sold basketball and football decals, and helped with the Polio March of Dimes at a basketball game. Also, the annual Hi Y Bazaar was held on January 17.

Dick Roberts was elected president; Jerry Daily, vice president; George Everbach, secretary; Ray Christiansen, treasurer; Lee Buchanan, sergeant-at-arms; and Tom Goris, chaplain.

Each year at Graduation, the club sponsors an award to be given to the outstanding Hi Y member.

Only junior and senior boys qualify for membership in this club.

The sponsor of the Senior Hi Y Club is Mr. Stan Sajko.

Bob Armstrong, Ronald Craig, and other members put finishing touches on shakers to be sold at the sectional.

The Female Side of the Game

The Girls Athletic Association is proud to be affiliated with a state organization. Its purpose is to set high standards of sportsmanship for those who participate in girls' athletics.

In November, five members and the club's sponsor, Miss Sue Hughes, attended a GAA playday. This playday which was held in Bloomington was attended by the twenty schools in District 9.

One of the main projects this year was to purchase sweat shirts for every member who had been in the club a year.

To support the team and make money for the club the girls sold pencils with the basketball schedule on them.

In January some of the girls participated in a girls' basketball game held in the boys' gym and sponsored by the Blotter. The Yellow Jackets triumphed over the Blue Hornets 22-20.

In order to be initiated, the girls must earn 50 points. To earn these she must participate in sports outside of school. Some of these sports include basketball, bowling, skating, ping pong, and swimming.

Officers of GAA, Lois Casey, vice president; Virginia Schroeder, secretary; Macalyn Wolf, treasurer; and Karen Funk, president, inspect athletic equipment; and from the expressions it seems things are in tip-top shape.

Bill Swift, president; Jim Henry, secretary-treasurer; Chet Denny, vice president; and Ronnie Sparkman, sergeant-at-arms.

Victory is no new thing for these members of the Varsity Club's intramural basketball team.

Sweater Boys

The purposes of the Varsity "N" Club are to promote an interest in athletics and to develop good morals and clean living while participating. Varsity Club members are boys who have at one time won a letter in one of the major sports—football, baseball, basketball, or track.

Until last year, working out plays for the various sports here at school had been the only purpose of the Varsity Club; however, this year the club has progressed and developed into one of the most active clubs in the school by carrying on many outside activities.

During the year the club had several speakers, including Garner Inman, who gave a very interesting talk about wrestling. Milt Lamb, sports writer for the Louisville Times, and Sam Peden, recreation supervisor, also spoke to the club.

Each year the Varsity Club participates in intramurals. Its members also sponsor a variety show. The Marlon Brando skit was a very amusing highlight of this year's variety show.

The club's members again looked forward to their annual picnic which, as always, proved to be a huge success and a lot of fun for every member and his guest.

Mr. Forrest McCaffry, head football coach at New Albany, sponsors this popular club.

With Nothing To "Spare"

Any high school student is eligible to join the Bowling Club. The purposes of this club are to provide healthful recreation and to teach good sportsmanship.

One of the activities of this club is a banquet in April to which all of the members are invited. The members also bowl each Wednesday after school between 3:00 and 4:00 at the Pearl and Oak Bowling Alleys.

The officers for the 1954-55 leagues were Ben Ewton, president; Nevin Martin, vice president; Larry Faith, secretary; and Jamie Aebersold, treasurer.

The Bowling Club is under the sponsorship of Mr. William Vincent. The club was organized in 1946.

Each year, there are trophies awarded to the members for special achievements.

There are four teams this year consisting of 5 members each.

It's a sure strike, and in good form, as Ben Ewton demonstrates bowling techniques to on-looking members.

"Aiming" For Fun

Learning fair play, sportsmanship and knowing how to shoot safely are the rewards of being a member of the Rifle Club. To gain this knowledge, the member attends basic training classes, Tuesday of each week.

This worthy organization was started in September of 1943 and has been progressing steadily for eleven years; however, this school year is the first year the Athletic Department of the school has included the rifle team in its sports program. A system of awards, similar to other school sports awards, has been set up for the team.

Each year the outstanding Rifle Club members are sent to the Sectional Shooting Match. This year's Sectional Shooting Match was held on April 23, 1955. New Albany's rifle team has made quite a showing at the match each year it has attended.

Sponsors of the Rifle Club are Mr. Harley Francis and Mr. Louis Von Behren.

Alley oop!

The Tumbling Club was organized to assist in the development of proper coordination of mind and body in order that its members might perform feats of agility and strength.

The club performed at the New Albany public schools' annual physical education program, which was held in the spring at the S. Ellen Jones School. During the months of February, May, and December the group was featured at several city civic clubs. Members also demonstrated their skills at several school variety shows.

The club consists of boys in all four grades of NAHS. They qualify by tryouts with eliminations.

They meet each Tuesday during the home room period in the girls' gym to practice various feats and formations.

Club officers for the past year were Jerry Roche, president; Gerald Bertrand, vice president; Bill Deuser, secretary; and Bruce Perkins, treasurer.

Mr. Floyd Henry, who organized the club 10 years ago, is the sponsor at present.

This is no "heads-up" organization as proved by the members during a practice session.

Peppy Gals

The Senior Boosters Club, organized in 1949 by Miss Alma Fischer, is one of the most active clubs in NAHS. Its main purposes are encouraging good sportsmanship, boosting all school activities, and increasing school loyalty.

The Boosters sponsored a song and yell contest in the latter part of the basketball season. The contest, which was open to anyone in high school, was won by Alice Shields and John Sandlewick. As a prize, they were each awarded a sectional basketball ticket.

The Boosters formed the traditional block "N" at all the seasonal and tournament games and sat together as a group during the football games.

This was the first year for the flash card section. One of the most impressive dramatizations was the portrayal of the life of Abraham Lincoln at the basketball game on the night preceding his birthday.

One of the most anticipated events of the year is the Senior Booster annual picnic held in the spring for all lettermen on all athletic teams.

The club is under the sponsorship of Miss Alma Fischer and Mr. Mike Hoffman.

"Make a point, make a point, add another point" is one of the yells with which the Boosters Club form the card section.

The Boosters Club forms a "55" at the first basketball game in 1955 to welcome in the new year.

Bulldog Backers

Since 1948 when Junior Boosters was organized, this club has been an enthusiastic supporter of the Junior Varsity teams. The purposes of the organization are to promote better sportsmanship among all students at athletic events and to boost all school activities.

Junior Boosters is one of the largest clubs in the school, composed of 148 ardent fans of the JV teams. Each year from their membership JV cheerleaders are chosen who back our team at all home games.

In the fall Junior Boosters entered a very interesting float in the annual homecoming parade. Evidently, the judges thought so too, for it received second place in the contest. Bulldogs, painted on heavy cardboard by Nancy Hancock, comprised the decorations for the prize-winning float. The Bulldog paints were then placed in the gym where everyone can admire them.

Officers for the club include Pat Whiteley, president; Sandy Fultioeer, vice president; Janet Lasley, secretary; and Barbara Bioford, treasurer.

The club is under the sponsorships of Miss Kathryn Ellis and Mr. Mark Perrin.

The qualification for membership into Junior Boosters is to be a freshman or sophomore girl with a sincere desire to uphold the purposes of the organization.

Junior Boosters have been busy during the past year. Besides contributing a lot of noise from the freshman and sophomore side of the gym at pep sessions, they helped Senior Boosters form their "N" at all the games.

Another activity which was sponsored by this club was the JV Hop, held February 18, in the high school gym after the last basketball game. This occasion was highlighted by the crowning of the Junior Varsity Basketball Queen. Marilyn Hudgin was crowned queen by Mr. Henry. Her escort was David Chastain, captain of the Junior Varsity team. Those in the queen's court and their escorts were Sandy Fultineer, Bill Henry; Jo Hannah Hahn, Larry Lee; Pat McCampbell, Jim Emery; and Saundra Drabing, Bill Ryall.

The Junior Boosters assemble early to make their "JB" and cheer the Junior Varsity Team to victory.

Members of Junior Boosters' executive committee are (Standing) —Virginia Sinkhorn, Judy Potter, Becky Miller, Lucy Anderson, and Pat Whiteley. (Seated)—Judy Raney, Barbara Binford, Sandy Fultineer, Janet Lasley, and Vera Seipel.

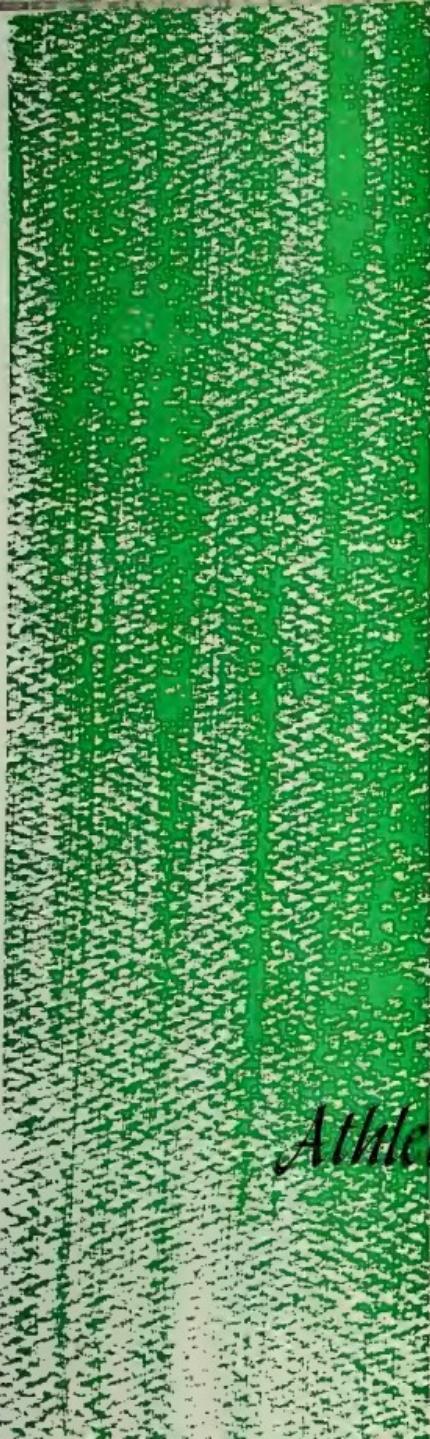

The forward look of victory is seen in the eyes of the Bulldogs. This was the Junior Boosters' contribution to the homecoming parade.

Gridiron Greats

The 1954 New Albany football team ended the season undefeated and untied for the first time in the school's history. Coach Forrest McCaffrey's Bulldogs won the SIAC football championship for the first time in 19 years, with decisive wins over Bloomington, Vincennes, and Evansville's Reitz, Central, and Bosse.

The Bulldogs opened the 1954 season by defeating the Pocatello Valley Vikings of Louisville, 19-12, showing very good form for an opening game. Dick Roberts, playing his first game of football, scored two touchdowns to lead the red and black.

The Dogs took to the road for their next game, which was against the Bloomington Panthers. After a poorly played first half, the Bulldogs broke loose in the second half to clinch the victory. The injured Chet Denny gave the team a needed spark, and Jim Henry and Jerry Daily passed to Bill Swift and Jim Clayton to break the game wide-open for a 20-0 win.

The following week the Macmen were hosts to their arch-rivals, the powerful St. Xavier Tigers of Louisville. In a rough, bruising, hard-fought game the Bulldogs rolled over the Tigers in the first half and led 14-0. Then, in the second half the New Albany offense was restrained, and St. Xavier began to gain repeatedly. The Bulldog line then put on one of the most courageous goal-line stands ever witnessed at Buerk Field, as they held Sr. X time and time again. Don Schnell's conversion gave the Bulldogs a hard-earned 14-13 win.

For the second straight week the strong Bulldog line saved the game, as it held Shortridge of Indianapolis on the one-foot line several times. The team, heavily penalized, had to fight from behind to conquer the Blue Devils 14-7. Jim Henry, veteran quarterback, intercepted a pass in the fourth quarter, and a few plays later, scored the winning touchdown on an option play.

The Canines then knocked off the highly-touted Reitz

Panthers of Evansville with surprising ease. Jerry Daily, reserve quarterback, led his team to a very decisive 27-13 win. This win was especially gratifying since the Panthers handed the Dogs their worst defeat the previous season.

New Albany then traveled to Vincennes where they routed the Alices handily. The rain and cold couldn't prevent them from rolling to a 46-12 win. The Bulldog bench gave indications that next year's team will be of champion caliber, as they played the entire second half and continued to roll up the points.

New Albany took the lead in the conference by edging the powerful Central Bears of Evansville 13-6, at Buerk Field. The whole team played inspiringly in the hard-fought game. The Bulldog backs, Bowen, Denny, and Roberts, led the team to a well-earned victory.

The following week, in the annual homecoming game, every man was determined to make up for the mediocre homecoming game the previous year. The team did just that, as it downed the outmanned Shawnee Indians 38-0. Denny and Henry scored twice each and Bowen and Solomon once each in the team's eighth straight win.

In the final game of the season, the New Albany Bulldogs proved their teeth were sharper than those of the Bosse Bulldogs. They won a 13-0 game over the Evansville team for the honored distinction of being unbeaten and untied. Bill Swift, Jim Henry, and Ronnie Leach sparked the team in the final game. Swift and Henry each recovered fumbles that hurt Bosse heavily, and Leach scooped up a loose ball and ran 68 yards for the game-clinching touchdown.

The All-Star teams gave added honor to NAHS. The United Press named Ronnie Leach to the first team; A. J. Harvey, second team; Bill Swift and Chet Denoy, third team; and Dick Roberts, honorable mention. The Associated Press named Ronnie Leach and Ronnie Sparkman to its team of 33 players. The Conference All-Star team found Chet Denoy and Ronnie Leach gaining first string Ronnie Leach gained the distinction of being named on every first-string All-Star team in the state. This outstanding tackle was named on the second string All-American team, selected by the Wigwam Wisemen of America. This was the first time that a New Albany athlete had gained such distinction.

McCaffry's crew climbed steadily in the Associated and United Press ratings, and were rated 2nd in the state in the final poll.

Kickin', Runnin', Puntin'

The Junior Varsity Football team finished the season with no victories and five losses, but its success and progress can not be measured in terms of games won and lost. The JV's played with determination at all times against heavier and more experienced opposition.

The team, comprised mostly of freshmen and a few sophomores, should greatly benefit the varsity squad next season. Bill Ryall and David Ramsey should round into top-notch backs, judging from their showing in the games. The varsity line should also benefit greatly by the addition of Stewart Harmon, Don Richert, Jack Harvey, and Don Schrieber from the Pups.

In the opening game, the inexperienced Pups were edged our by Valley, 6-0, in the rain. The second game with Flager was nip-and-tuck for three quarters, but finally Flager broke loose to win, 8-0. The Pups were determined to break into the win column against the tough St. Xavier team. They battled the Tigers on even terms most of the game, but St. Xavier grabbed up a loose ball in the closing minutes for a 6-0 win.

New Albany scored its first touchdown of the season in the first quarter of the Central of Louisville game, but lost by 21-7. In the final game of the season, the Pups were handed their worst defeat by Shawnee, 42-0.

This year's team was coached by Mr. Sajko and Mr. Hoffman.

Hardwood Heroes

The 1954-55 basketball team was one of the greatest teams ever to represent our school. It was the highest scoring team in the school's history and set numerous records along the tourney line. This was one of the hardest fighting groups ever to wear the red and black on the hardwood.

The team won the SIAC with a record of 9-1, and advanced to the state finals for the third time in five years. The Bulldogs downed the Corydon Panthers 74-51 in the season opener, but failed to look impressive in doing so. In the next game at Bedford the Bulldogs had to stage a terrific comeback to win. They beat the Stonecutters 50-49 after being behind 22 points at one time. When they entertained Martinsville, the Canines showed they could play a slow type ball game as well as fast-break, and sent the Artesians home with a 68-57 loss.

The Dogs traveled to Anderson and came out of the slump to subdue the Indians 67-55. The Givensmen then literally burned up the nets at Vincennes, and came home with a 79-71 victory.

The Bulldogs dulled the Hatchets of Washington at home the next night with a 72-54 win. Givens' crew then journeyed to Lafayette's Invitational Tournament. They beat the host Broncos 65-62 in a close game to gain the final with Jasper, which had eliminated Hammond. The next night the Jasper Wildcats handed them their first loss of the season, in a thrilling 68-67 game.

At Evansville, the Bulldogs proved their teeth were sharper than those of the Bosse Bulldogs and were victorious 72-64. The Male Purples were handed one of their worst defeats in history by our team. Coach Givens' strategy, coupled with stellar playing, sent them back across the river with a 91-75 defeat. New Albany then almost lost hope for a conference championship in a torrid game at Evansville Memorial. After coming from behind, the Canines edged the Pocket City team, 67-64.

The following week, the Seymour Owls handed them their second defeat of the year. In a see-saw battle of two good teams, Seymour came out on top, 80-77. The next night the Dogs returned home and thumped the Madison Clubs, 89-57. At Tell City, the Dogs broke in the Marksmen's gym in high fashion by handing them a severe 90-38 setback.

In their inaugural meeting with Indianapolis Manual, they beat the Capital City team, 89-61. Then the Jasper Wildcats handed the Givensmen their worst setback of the season, 74-58. The following week the Reitz Panthers staged a terrific comeback but succumbed by 62-60.

The following night at Indianapolis Howe, the Dogs bested the Horners in a close tussle, 80-75. Evansville Central fell next to the Bulldogs, and fur flew as they beat the Golden Bears, 79-73. Next, the conference crown was captured as Bloomington fell by 82-66.

The Dogs breezed through the sectionals in record-breaking style. By defeating Georgetown 115-52, New Salisbury 68-49 and Morgan Township 87-57, they set many new records. The confident Bulldogs took the regional in their stride the next week. By defeating Silver Creek 77-66 and Paoli 88-60, they again set many new records. As the string of record-breaking victories continued, they downed Switz City 84-61 and Vincennes 86-58.

The State Finals found four of the State's best teams assembled in the Butler Fieldhouse. The Crispus Attucks Tigers of Indianapolis stopped the Bulldogs' bid for the title by 79-67, and went on to win over Gary Roosevelt.

Jim Henry was named as the recipient of the coveted Tresser Award, given for all-around sportsmanship and scholarship. Jim Henry and Harold Johnson were named first team on the Conference All-Star Team. Charles Seitz received honorable mention. Henry was also named on the All-Finals team and played in the Indiana-Kentucky All-Star game. He was also nominated for the North-South All-Star game at Murray, Kentucky.

The Courier-Journal All-Star Team named Jim Henry on the first team and Harold Johnson and Charles Seitz on the eighth team. Charles Seitz won the annual free throw trophy.

Another season has gone into the record books. The Bulldogs of 1955 are history now, but their record and achievements will be remembered for many years to come.

Junior Basketeers

The New Albany Junior Varsity basketball team, coached by Floyd Henry, ended the season with a very impressive record. The team won 12 games while only losing 2.

The Pups opened the season with a victory over Corydon, 32-30. Then Bedford barely edged them out, 33-32. Martinsville went down by 44-32, but Anderson handed them their worst loss of the season, 40-24, in the next game.

Washington was an easy foe and fell by 50-26. The Hencymen ran up their highest score of the season in defeating Male 65-41.

Seymour and Madison could not cope with the Pups' height and fell by 45-28 and 60-36, respectively. A balanced attack gave the Pups a 44-27 win over Tell City. In their first meeting with Manual of Indianapolis, they beat the upscale team, 47-31.

Jasper provided a close game, and New Albany, although behind, emerged victorious, 44-41. Reitz floored a good team but went home with a 51-45 defeat.

The Pups ended the season with victories over Indianapolis Howe, 51-40, and Evansville Central 53-40. Coach Henry had a very tall team with tremendous rebounding power. The spirit was good among the well-rounded team, which fought back from behind on many occasions.

The success of the JV's should be some indication of good coaching and determination.

Frosh Hoopsters

The 1955 Freshman Basketball Team ended the season with a record of eight victories and six defeats.

The Frosh got off to a bad start by losing to Corydon 29 to 16 but bounced back to edge Salem 33 to 32. They then defeated the Central Junior Varsity 42 to 35 and Holy Trinity 38 to 35.

The Freshmen scored an easy victory over Flager's little Braves to run their winning streak to four.

After losing the second time in the season to Corydon, 42 to 41, New Albany dumped St. X. 31 to 29 and Providence 35 to 32 in hard fought contests.

The team suffered its worst defeat of the season at the hands of Huntingburg in the first game of the SIAC freshman tournament 55 to 32.

The Pups then downed Salem for the second time this season 31 to 19 before losing to St. X. 53 to 39.

They then lost two close games to Providence 34 to 32 and Central 50 to 43, teams they had beaten previously.

The freshmen ended the season rolling over Flager 46 to 31 to end their three game losing streak and give the team a winning record.

This year's team was coached by Charles Pratt.

Hit and Run Affair

The 1955 Baseball team, coached by Mr. Sajko, ended the season with a record of 11 wins and 7 losses. Injuries and hard luck plagued the Bulldogs throughout the season, which could have been far better.

The record of 11-7 is deceiving, since the Dogs lost 4 games by one run. Eastern handed the Sajkomen their first loss, 6-2. They then won their next five games. St. Xavier fell 8-0 and Shawnee by 4-2. Flaget was shut out 7-0, and Silver Creek was battered by 14-2.

Louisville Central was a 10-1 loser to the Bulldogs, and then hard luck again overcame the team. Five errors helped the Providence Pioneers to edge out a 5-4 win. Kentucky Military Institute provided a pitcher's duel and a 3-1 win for the Dogs. Traveling to Bedford the Bulldogs wo the first game of a doubleheader, 7-0. defensive game in the outfield, suffered a broken collarbone. The Stonecutters edged the New Albany boys 7-6 in the second game.

St. Xavier eked out a 4-3 win, and Male took a 7-0 game from the Dogs. The second game with Male was won by New Albany, 5-4. Shawnee was the loser in a close 4-3 game, but Providence again defeated the Bulldogs, 5-3.

The Dogs put on their hitting clothes and blasted Central 15-1. Southern fell 6-1 in the first game of a doubleheader, but K.M.I. edged out a 4-3 win to close the season.

Larry Robb, Bulldog captain, won the batting trophy with an average of .353.

Spectacular Spikes

The 1955 track team, coached by Alex Thom, finished the season undefeated in dual meets, champion of the New Albany Relays, and winner of its own sectional.

Coach Thom welcomed 14 lettermen at the start of the season, virtually the same team that had won the sectional, New Albany Relays, and had been nosed out of the SIAC crown by 1½ points the year before; however, bad luck and injuries stopped the Bulldogs from becoming the great team it might have been.

The Bulldogs opened the season by downing Silver Creek and Corydon in a triangular meet. New Albany was an easy victor, with 82 points, to Corydon's 36 1/3 and Silver Creek's 21 1/3.

The Dogs then traveled to Bloomington, the Hoosier Relays, the largest indoor high school meet in the United States. Competing with the state's best, Bill Swift took fifth in the shot put and the Bulldog shuttle hurdle relay team took fourth.

The Salem Lions fell easily, 85 to 24, before the Dogs' spikes, as did the St. Xavier Tigers, 89 to 20. In the first annual Bloomington Relays the Bulldogs took second, with 50 points, behind the host team with 57. Bill Swift and the shuttle hurdle team provided records in the 8 team meet.

The Bulldog Cindermen then successfully defended their New Albany Relays title. New Albany scored 77 points over second place Seymour's 45 in the 12 team field. Bill Swift set a new shot put record; Joe Carroll tied the pole vault record; and the Bulldog relay teams, the medley, mile, and shuttle hurdle, came through with victories.

The second annual Columbus Relays found the New Albany team finishing third, with 76 points, behind Bloomington with 90 points and Columbus with 78. Bill Swift and Joe Carroll set new meet records in winning their respective events.

Vincennes won the SIAC meet with 47½ points; Bloomington took second with 42¾; and New Albany took third with 35¾. Joe Carroll and Bill Swift won the pole vault and shot put, respectively. The Bulldog mile relay team, composed of Jim Clayton, Joe Voyles, Bill Farris, and Bruce Speedy, turned in one of the state's best times, 3:35.

The Dogs repeated as sectional champions with 62 points, over Seymour, with 42½ in the 18 team field. Dick Roberts, Bill Swift, and Joe Carroll set new meet records.

The Bulldogs had a disappointing showing in the Regional at Bloomington. Joe Carroll was the only man to qualify for the state meet. He was crowned pole vault champion at the Indiana state finals by topping the bar at 12 feet 6¾ inches. Joe is a junior and appears to have a very promising track future.

The marks and records set by this track team will stand for years to remind all that this team was an outstanding one.

Pup Putters

The 1955 golf team, coached by Floyd Henry, was composed of all underclassmen who have their eyes on the state title in 1956. The team showed championship form on several occasions, but also played far below their capabilities several times.

Silver Creek was an easy 18-0 to the Hearymen, 9-6. Silver Creek went down again, 15-0, and Providence provided a 12-6 win for the Dogs. St. Xavier handed the youthful team its first defeat, 9-6, and Flager rebounded from the earlier loss to dump our linksmeo, 8-7.

Columbus was a 9-6 loser, but Providence gained revenge by driving to a 7-4 win. Bedford nosed out an 8-7 win over the Dogs to end the regular season. The SIAC provided a fifth place finish for New Albany in a 9 team field. Providence then won the sectional, in which New Albany finished 9th in a 17 team field.

The latter winners were Larry Donahue, Jack Fulks, Gene Middaugh, Donald Seiler, Donald Sutton, Raymond Kochert, Dennis Richardson, and Bobby Kopp.

The Bulldog Linksman showed a potential of being one of Indiana's top teams next year, and their fine performances this season should cast enough shadows to prove it.

Over the River and Through the Woods

The New Albany Cross-Country Team, coached by Floyd Henry, turned in the best record achieved by Bulldog Cross-Country Teams of the past 10 years. In the inaugural meet of the season the Bulldogs downed Silver Creek 15-40. In the next meet they defeated Fern Creek and St. Xavier by a score of 15-40-93 respectively.

The Harriers then engaged the Salem Lions, and although Salem presented formidable opposition, New Albany was victorious by 23-34. In a quadrangular meet the Bulldogs placed the first five men for 15 points. Silver Creek was second with 55, New Washington was third with 103, and New Salisbury was fourth with 108.

The Thinlies placed third in the SIAC meet, behind Vincennes, with 28, and Bloomington, with 48 points. The Bulldogs entertained the Dragons of Silver Creek at the Country Club course in the final dual meet of the season. Peculiarly, the score of 15-40 was the same as the early-season meet. The sectional meet found the Vincennes Alices winning with 49 points. New Albany placed second with 86 points, qualifying them for the state meet.

The following week the Ridge-Runners placed eleventh in the state meet to round out a highly successful season.

Bruce Speedy led the team, as he was undefeated in dual meets and always ran first for New Albany. The rest of the first five consisted of Adrian McNickle, Ronald Quackenbush, Bob Humphrey, and Charles Akers. Joe Voyles and Bruce Perkins also lettered.

The 1955 aggregation is expected to be as powerful, if not more so, than the 1954 team. Bob Humphrey and Charles Akers were the only boys lost via graduation.

Anticipating a tough opponent to the Salem Lions, the New Albany Harriers crouch for a good start.

Davy Crocketts

Despite a lack of experienced shooters, the rifle team, coached by Mr. Francis, turned in another winning season. After losing its first match of the season to Owensboro, Kentucky, the team scored an easy victory over the Jeffersonville Boys Club.

In the Indiana State matches New Albany took first and fifth place in the prone position and was first among non-military schools. The team received its second and last loss of the season in a postal match with North Field, Vermont.

The Bulldogs then won four in a row by defeating Lincoln High of Tacoma, Washington; Jeffersonville Boys Club; Montgomery Blair High of Silver Springs, Maryland; and Central High of Deposit, New York. The Bulldog sharpshooters then placed first in the NRA Sectional to end the season.

Russell Ford, Charles Barker, Jim Baker, Jack Bott, Jerry Stato, Walter Stewart, Leonard McWilliams, Warren Anderson, and Richard Hilton received varsity letters.

An even better team is expected next year, since only one senior, Dwight Patterson, is lost by graduation.

Jim Baker and Russell Ford sharpen their shooting eyes preparing for the Culver meet.

Mr. Francis gives instructions on prone shooting methods.

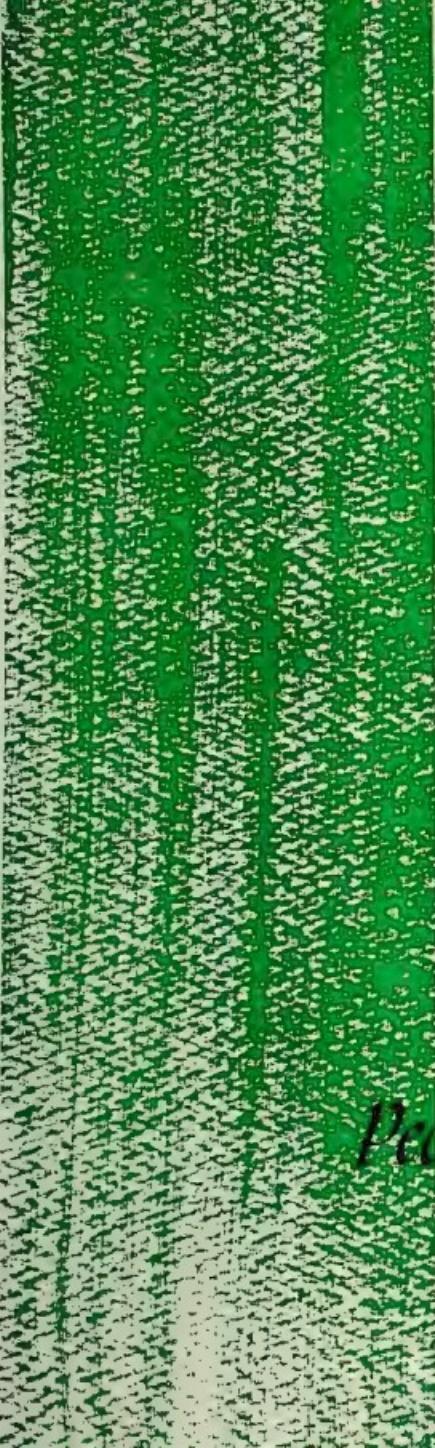

Warren Anderson, Francis Baird, and Maurice Kaufer compare scores to decide final results in a meet.

Bill Tischendorf, Charles Barker, and Jack Bott are competing in an intra-squad match.

Seated at the conference table are our school trustees, Dr. John M. Paris, secretary; Mr. Ralph W. Gresham, president; and Mr. Robert Harris, treasurer.

Administration

Glen Barkes, Superintendent of City Schools.

In order to have a fine, well organized school there must be many people working constantly for its betterment. We, the students of NAHS, feel very fortunate to have such an outstanding school and efficient administration.

This school year began with a new and very capable superintendent, Mr. Glen Barkes, and a new but efficient principal, Mr. Delbert Brown. These two men, with the cooperation of the school board and the teaching staff, have led us to the conclusion of another successful school year.

Our qualified staff is carrying out its responsibilities under competent leadership in such a way that we, the students, cannot help but be proud of New Albany Senior High School.

Mr. Delbert Brown, Principal, and Mr. Fred Hochmeister, Assistant Principal, take time from their work to smile for the photographer.

Taking a break in their busy schedule are Mrs. Jessie Beard Long, retiring Dean of Girls, Miss Lucille Paris, present Dean of Girls, and Mr. Max Wiesman, Dean of Boys.

Talking over student problems are our counselors, Mrs. Dorothy Morsinger and Mr. Marvin Oakes.

"THE HOUSE OF DIAMONDS"

Down through the years, we here at "Ray's" have taken pride in our merchandising system.

We have always featured, and shall continue to feature, the Most Popular Nationally Advertised Merchandise.

Elgin — Bulova — Gruen — Hamilton — Longines — Benrus — Keepsake Diamonds — Speidel — 1847 Rogers — Community Silver — and many others too numerous to mention, are synonymous with "Ray's."

RAYS JEWELRY

"New Albany's Friendly Jewelry Store."

Employees of Rays Jewelry stroll out front to check window displays.

Dick Roberts is pleased as Louis Stein shows him the latest in spring footwear.
